Notes

At 6 P.M. the Cook was called aft. and questioned him as regarded the sudden disappearance of the Capt's Dog, and he denied knowing anything about it. He was then ordered to be put in Prison, He refused, saying, hang it, I won't go in Prison, and at the same time walked forward, the Capt. commanding him to stop, but not obeying, the Capt. pointed a Pistol and told him if he did not stop he would shoot him. The Cook still moved forward and about abreast of the Foreworks the Capt. fired and shot him in the back. He then stopped, and came aft and was put in irons, saying at the same time, that he, the Capt. might keep him in irons, all the voyage, that he should not, own, what he did not do.

The Crew, was then called aft, and asked if they knew anything about the dog, they all denied, and was sent forward.

The Cook then complained of a pain in his back and wished Capt. Jones would take out the Ball, as he said was in there. He was then taken down in the Cabin and Capt. Jones tried to extract the Ball, after trying sometime, the wound, was bound up, and all things setled, the Pilot was fired to intimidate or frighten him.
